Spring 2011

Sembrando Herencia 2010 500 Years

Inside this issue:

On December 5th, 2010 we presented our first tri-lingual musical: 500 Years. This musical included songs and dialogue in Spanish, English and Taino (Puerto Rico's indigenous people).

In order to incorporate the three languages in an interesting way, 500 Years took us from a Taino village in 1504 to the mountains in 1810 to the present day in New York city and back to the island.

The picture on the right is a representation of life in the "cafetal." Puerto Rico has a long tradition of coffee production, even though it was brought to the island by the Spaniards around 1736, it wasn't until the Corsican immigrants started to work with it that the Puerto Rico's coffee was recognized as a coffee of excellence (1890). So, this scene is a celebration and a reflection of our past. Nowadays, the island continues producing coffee, but we can say that the 19th Century was the golden age of Puerto Rico's Coffee industry.

Saludos from the Founding Director

Semign cacona guari (God bless)!

We are only half-way through the Spring semester and already have so many beautiful memories to write about! On our first day back (Jan 8th), our Taino Family & Guaytiao (friends) kicked off opening day with a Taino Gathering that celebrated the New Year, as well as our Founding Director Tekina-eirú Maynard's birthday which fell on that day!! This event included an authentic Areyto (ceremonial dance), a discussion on Taino spirituality, and a pot-luck dinner! Later that month, Dr. Maynard gave an invited talk to the Austin Friends of Folk Arts on Taino Heritage. For Tekina-eirú, it was a privilege to share the history of her Ancestors and plans for the future to those learning about Tainos for the first time. Dr. Maynard donated the honorarium from this talk to PRFDance.

Later that month (Jan 23), PRFDance shared the joy and liveliness of our "Octavitas" holiday tradition with the Chinese community in an amazing cultural exchange that brought The Love of China dancers, a Tai Chi display from the Xiang Yun Temple, and the Dragon team to share the Chinese New Year with our community for the first time! YNN-News (News 8) surprised us with TV cameras as our VERY large, standing-room only crowd -- including distant neighbors from Dallas, Killeen, San Antonio, and Oklahoma -- helped Puerto Ricans in Austin close the longest holiday season on the planet. Many brought instruments to play and sing along to joyful Puerto Rican holiday music and dances by the PRFDance Performing Company and Youth Students, in this fun family event sponsored by Fiesta Mart.

On February 6th, PRFDance returned the cultural exchange started on Octavitas with a performance at the Xiang Yun Temple in celebration of the Chinese New Year. This fun, free outdoor event included food and art exhibitions and performances by PRFDance, Austin traditional music, Chinese yo-yo, kung fu display, a magic show, Indian dance, and everyone's favorite, the dragon/lion dance. For most all of us at PRFDance this cultural exchange was an exciting, first time experience in a Chinese Temple! In return, we were able to share our culture with the Chinese community and demonstrate PRFDance's commitment to preserving our culture and hand down our beautiful heritage to a new generation!

On Valentine weekend (Feb. 12), PRFDance celebrated love and family with a Valentine Salsa Dance featuring Reggaeton group Los Splendi2 and DJ Bufiao spinning their amazing collection of classic Salsa Gorda. In the spirit of sharing, everyone brought a dish to share (Pernil, Arroz con Pollo!) or dessert (Tres Leches!). Parents found those "dress up" clothes they never get to wear anymore, and danced with their kids. Others just played dominoes! We celebrated our youth -- Tureyguanani's 11th birthday, and Guarinara's 1st place National Championship of the red belt division of the National NASKA Tournament! It was an old fashioned family dance, with great people, lots of joy, and wonderful food and music -- just like we remember growing up!

With this amazing number of special events behind us, our classes are preparing for more excitement just on the horizon. Up ahead, Tito Matos (Viento de Agua) and Tata Cepeda will be coming to Austin to train our performing company in -- master-level and powerful -- plena and bomba music and dance! Students will likewise have their own personal class experience with the folklore masters direct from Puerto Rico...in Spanish! The Maestros will return in June with all of Viento de Agua for a special edition of Celebrando that will be celebrating 10 years of projects with our Maestros from Puerto Rico who have helped us to become a premier Puerto Rican cultural center and performing company on the US Mainland.

In May, our student programs take front and center in Esperanza de la Herencia (Hope of the Heritage), our annual performance dedicated to inspiring Youth. With free admission to all children (under 18), this Recital of our cultural arts students, backed by our Performing Company will display the rich variety of Puerto Rico's traditions in a live music and dance performance that we hope will inspire children with a lifetime love of culture.

As our 13th year comes to a close, I thank Semign (God) for our cultural center Family who have discovered this rare place in our City where parents can participate with their children in a clean family atmosphere of traditions, music, and dance, a place where you can be adopted by our cultural center family if you are alone in town without any! PRFDance is dedicated to those who come seeking a world-class education in folklore and cultural traditions, who wish to discover and celebrate their identity, who yearn to become connected to a community, who will inspire and be inspired by role models, mentors and friends, and who, inside our walls, find a sense of pride and a dream for the future. We have been named the Ambassadors of Puerto Rican culture in Central Texas. We are proud to share the joy of our rich traditions with our community, and hand down our cultural heritage to the next generation! Thank you for being a part of it!

The Musical

Here you can enjoy a collage of Pictures from some of the scenes of our play. As you can tell from these pictures, everybody; dancers, actors, musicians and volunteers, put on a colorful story together. They worked hard for all of us, and they gave all their energy and talent to make a wonderful show.

PRFDance focuses on children and teaching them about our heritage and that is why our plays are filled with children characters. For us, they are the future and the reason for our work.

Class Descriptions:

TRADITIONAL DANCE & CULTURE - (ages 5 and up, schedule above). These naturally bilingual classes teach traditional dances such as Bomba, Plena, Seis and Danza, as well as Salsa and other modern dances relevant to our culture and celebrations. Class material is taught at an age/skill-appropriate pace and complexity. Lessons begin with the basics, building on knowledge from previous classes towards a full-length choreography. Lessons on Puerto Rican culture, history, games and songs are added to enhance appreciation of Puerto Rican traditions. Semesters culminate in a Performance Recital.

THE COQUIS "BRINCA Y CANTA" CLASS - (ages 0-4)

Saturdays, 12-1pm. Adults are having as much fun as the children in this program targeted for young children and their favorite adult (parent, grandparent, etc.). This program teaches early childhood music including songs in Spanish, basic rhythm, creative movement and traditional childhood games in a family-style, mixed-age class based in our cultural heritage. This non-performance program gives children a musically rich learning experience from which (starting at age 5) they can graduate into our Youth Dance, Choir Program, or both! To encourage family togetherness, note that an accompanying adult is welcomed and required for this class.

YOUTH CHOIR - Saturdays, 9:00-10am. This naturally bilingual class teaches traditional and popular Puerto Rican songs to children and teens. Semesters culminate in a recital with our very own PRFDance Musicos.

PERCUSSION CLASS - Youth/Beginner (Saturdays, 10-11am) and Company (Thursdays, 6-7pm) classes cover traditional percussion rhythms from Puerto Rico, such as Bomba and Plena, as well as other afro-caribbean percussive rhythms relevant to our culture. Instruments taught include barriles, panderos, congas, tambores and small percussion. Lessons on Puerto Rican food, language, history, and more are added to enhance the base appreciation of Puerto Rican culture. Semesters culminate in a Recital.

MUSIC ENSEMBLE PROGRAMS - Students (Saturdays, 9-10am) and Advanced/Professional (Thursdays, 7-9:30pm). These programs teach Puerto Rican compositions to those demonstrating a proficiency in instrument, percussion, or voice. They are targeted for students through professionals interested in learning authentic orchestration of Puerto Rican music and traditions. The Professional Music Ensemble (professional-level musicians already fully skilled and knowledgeable in Puerto Rican music, folklore, and traditions) offers opportunity to work on performance quality material, keep polished, or improve technique and orchestration skills. Semesters culminate in a Recital.

Keeping in touch with your culture

by: Yadiria Izquierdo

Usually we use this space for sharing a poem or a recipe, but not in this occasion. Here we want to share a small biography of an iconic figure in Puerto Rico's theater: René Marqués (October 4, 1919–March 22, 1979).

René Marqués was born in Arecibo, Puerto Rico and he was a prolific writer. He was best known for his shorts stories and plays. La Carreta (The oxcart) is a classic tale of "Jibaro" living and it's a portrait of rural Puerto Rico, written with such precision that it's considered Marqués' master piece.

Among others, Marqués wrote Los soles trunecos, La muerte no entrará en palacio y Un niño azul para una sombra. If you want to keep in touch with your culture, reading is a wonderful way to do it. That way, you can know your history and pass it forward to future generations.

Know your history, love your heritage.
